- Manufacturer: Gun Oil Cola Bottling Corp.
- Price: 0.50 KS or 1 DA for a 3L bottle

History

Originally derived by Neplesian mad scientist as a battle stim, Gun Oil Cola's formula is a closely held family secret. While the flavor was incredibly popular with users, the stim's energizing effects didn't last long enough to offer much aid in combat. Especially because an operator would have to drink an entire 500ml bottle in order to gain the effects. To make matters worse, the product was mildly addictive.

The stim was rebranded as a soft drink and the Gun Oil Cola Bottling Corp. was launched. Today they're one of the largest soft drink companies, producing a wide variety of sodas, sports drinks, and energy drinks. One of their most popular brands is Glacier Water.<sup>1)</sup>
