Power of DoMA

As a government body, the power that the DoMA holds is primarily Military Assets. This means their power is limited when it comes to anything else. They are in charge of making sure their assets are in working order, and they can fit a specific soldier with a specific weapon suited to their occupation within the military

DoMA employees

The employees of the Department of Military assets are the technician's mechanics and the armorers of the New Dusk Conclave that work tirelessly to make sure their military technology is in working order. These men and women of various races work together to make sure that the NDC is protected and kept safe with working starships, weapons, vehicles, and power armor.
