Character Description

Ilona's original appearance as Etsuko was of a petite Nekovalkyrja with fair skin, teal hair that she kept in a neat braid with bangs and bright green eyes. Her default personality as a medic was of a cheerful, energetic and shy young woman with a light Mezzo-soprano voice. Her pre-programmed hobbies were braiding decorative cord, origami and therapeutic massage.

Voice Sample: Saori Hayami

Personality: Ilona is a soft spoken and fairly level headed young woman who tries to give others the chance to fully express their thoughts before she contributes to the conversation. Her original shy demeanor remains in regards to her personal life but she is personable with a good bedside manner, full of smiles and positivity, and empathy as appropriate for the situation. She makes it a point to know everyone within her Free company and will go out of her way to make small casual conversation with them in passing, instilling a sense of deep trust between her and the people that rely on her on and off the battlefield. As a medical professional, she values life and seeks to preserve it whenever possible but will fight to protect the people within her charge.

Her time as a combat medic in the service of the Grand Star Army, star army of yamatai and the United Outer Colonies Peacekeeping Forces has forced her reconcile her duties as a doctor versus her duties as a soldier. She is highly skilled and trained in combat but direct confrontation is not her first choice nor is she a pacifist. If she thinks she can save more lives by killing than allowing someone to live, she will take the single life every time but she is not callous. The lives of those she has been unable to save weigh on her mind but she deals with her guilt through devotion to her work.

A hold over from her time planetside as a nekovalkyrja is her fear of thunder. The unexplained, uncontrollable noise of natural phenomenon terrifies her and makes her seek comfort from the nearest willing person. She will cling to the person until she falls asleep or until they calm her down between rolls of thunder.

Her current hobbies include astronomy, bird watching, braiding decorative cord, and cooking. Her desire is to experience life to the fullest as a normal person with only one life to live. One day she hopes to experience love, and if the way is good, to raise a family.

History & Relationships

✘ Ilona started life as a Etsuko, a Grand Star Army Medical Nekovalkyrja in ye 23 during the fourth_elysian_war. She served under the supervision and alongside sutauto isao as a part of the Second Fleet in defense of Yamatai \(Planet\) and followed him when much of their forces were shifted to the First Fleet. She lost track of her senpai when he suddenly transferred to parts unknown in ye 29 during the first_mishhuvurthyar_war.

She served happily in service to Yamatai Star Empire until her military career took her to Taiie as part of the Fifth Expeditionary Fleet. She stayed with the 5th Expeditionary fleet and was disheartened by the treatment of the Taiie survivors at the hands of the administration of pisces but was part of the riot that allowed the 5XF to return to the battlefield despite the restrictions on departures from Pisces at the time.

In ye 30, many hard truths were uncovered by Senator tange-katsura ayana and Taisho Motoyoshi Katsuko on Hotaru Star Fortress that left Katsuko Empress and the departure of ketsurui uesu's departure from known space. She like many of the 5th Fleet, made the hard decision to stay with her sisters during the break of the United Outer Colonies from the Yamatai Star Empire feeling that the Empire had betrayed them. When Yamatai ordered that the 5XF were to return all military equipment, all 5XF nekovalkyrja were instructed to return their bodies (since it was classified as military equipment), she transitioned from her Nekovalkyrja body and had her consciousness placed into a cloned Nepleslian body made by Stalwart Defense Industries during the production of the ni-aria, favoring a human body to another synthetic one.

During the UOC Black out in ye 32, she joined forces with aleksasha bloodtree and the beginnings of what would eventually become the Uial lúg Free Company. She plied her abilities as a medical professional to keep the company moving until they reached Asura III where they were formalized as an Asterian Free Company in ye 39 and were assigned to accompany aniseth whitemeadow to Heled \(Lkihujngfv\).

Like many of the members of the Uial Lug, she was shocked when her friend and Knight Commander, aleksasha bloodtree decided to sleep with aniseth whitemeadow's personal retainer and sworn knight, sutauto_isao before the two elves were formally married by elven ritual. The appearance of sutauto_isao was a greater surprise to Ilona because she had served with him in the Grand Star Army and remembered a very different soldier.

Ilona took the news of Isao's subsequent banishment to heart and asked Aleksasha to allow her to go to Isao and help restore the shattered samurai to some semblance of who he was before the second_mishhuvurthyar_war and the death of his wife. Perhaps, with some measure of guilt, Aleksasha allowed Ilona to go to Isao and stay with him as part of Isao's forces.
