History

Family (or Creators)

None.

Pre-RP

Shutdown had an average childhood for a freespacer growing up on a mothership and learning in the tubes like everyone else. She was incubated via cloning-vats and put into communal nurseries. There she spent her time in a state of hypnopaedia, with short breaks in between hibernation cycles to develop basic social skills and physical health. By the time she reach adolescence she will have the equivalent of a high school education. At this point she was "let loose" upon society as a temporary apprentices, visiting different ships and jobs until she found a task she both enjoy and was suited to.

She found the tech and engineering route was best for her, she earned the name Shutdown at the early stages of this job when she almost shut down all power to the ship.

When she reach adulthood she decided motherships and support vessels weren't for her and she spent her time searching for a calling, she work for a week or so on each planet she visited before leaving and traveling to a new planet.

Skills

Communications

Shutdown can speak in low level code talk with ease, Nepleslian, Trade, Yamataian and can concentrate on speaking when under-fire or in a combat situation.

Starship Operations

Living in starship environments for Shutdown's entire lives, she naturally learnt quite a bit regarding starship architecture and related systems. She can quickly take up other roles if she is needed to.

Mindware

Shutdown learns skills in a fraction of the time it may take most humanoids. She can also provide a small digital memory bank, allowing her to privately record and store memoirs, or share these with others. Finally she can download reference books or instruction manuals into this digital memory, giving others the illusion that a user knows much more than they truly do.

Vehicles

Shutdown is familiar with how to effectively pilot most ground vehicles. She can make rudimentary repairs to his vehicle. In addition, she is particularly skilled at operating Mechas. While inside this vehicle, she can perform difficult maneuvers under high stress. She is also proficient in repairing this type of vehicle.

Engineering

Shutdown loves to build and design things even if they make no sense when she talks about them, she just lets his imagination fly and what comes out is useful most of the time.

Fighting

Shutdown was trained to fight, so knows how to fight with and without weaponry, she likes using her claw or any ranged weapon if needed for ranged combat.

Maintenance and Repair

Shutdown doesn't mind getting down and dirty, keeping things running and making sure that they won't blow up is all that she can do, as one of her many jobs that she had throughout her life.
