Physical Description

6'5 in height, muscular in body build, black hair cut short spiky in the front, same facial features(minus tattoos, facial hair, and scar) and voice as Jack Pine, crimson eyes. His large height and muscular build combined with his usual attitude tend to disturb people keeping them clear and out of his way. Lazarus tends to twitch slightly when he thinks combat, or bloodshed is imminent.

Personality

Lazarus is like his progenitor in the fact that he is very proficient at killing, which unlike Jack he actually enjoys killing, and focusing at the mission at hand is as important to him as it is to Jack, but that's where the similarities end. He is cold, calculating, murderous, sadistic, and an all-around psychopath who loves even the promise of violence. Lazarus also prefers solitude over companionship as he views it as nothing but a hindrance, he despises people in general (especially his progenitor). He hates all life, even his own, and if ever given the chance would probably kill all life if given the means, but this is second to his goal of finding whoever's DNA was used to make him, and kill them slowly and painfully after he has taken everything they hold dear.

History

Lazarus was born in YE 37.

Lazarus has no past, no history, he was born from a tank. He has been training for two years now to be Psychopomp's personal attack dog. The training has been grueling and the surgeries worse, and this has only fueled his distaste for life, for what he is, and only takes pleasure in the fact that he has a purpose. To kill anyone seen as a target by Pyschopomp, and he hopes that one day, one of those targets will be his progenitor. Lazarus believes that he needs revenge against him for in a way giving him life. He has completed all of his trial missions, and no awaits further orders.
