About Aris'Taeus

Project Checkout, in YE 39, left the Lorath Matriarchy divided between those who remained in the Kagami Galaxy and those who left. The remaining heads of the Houses came together in desperation to make their society whole again. The effort to restore the Tur'Lista was high on the priority list and the requirement for a stable future for the Lorath Matriarchy.

The initiative to create a genetic member of the Tur'Lista was called Project Aris'Taeus. Using genetic material on file from Xiaah Harr'Ikke "Destiny" Tur'Lista, the Lorath engineered the adult male component to their restoration of the Tur'Lista House. The project was completed in YE 40, when the High Priest Aris'Taeus “Karma” Tur'Lista emerged from developmental stasis in a secret chamber of a shrine devoted to the God Ifmir in the Gryzciki System.

In YE 42, about the same time when High Priest Aris'Taeus “Karma” Tur'Lista had completed the condensed education program put in place by the leaders of the caste houses there was plans to make a female counterpart to begin completing the classic mother, father, and two children composition of the Tur'Lista. Before the biological engineering could be completed, one of the caste house leaders seen Xiaah Harr'Ikke "Destiny" Tur'Lista appear in a promotional video for Origin Industries and stopped the project immediately.

Physical Characteristics

High Priest Aris'Taeus “Karma” Tur'Lista is a genetically created Lorath with a ideal expression of pure Tur'Lista genetics. He towers in stature at six feet and eight inches tall and weighs in at two-hundred and forty pounds with a well defined athletic masculine physique that makes him an Adonis of the Lorath people. His skin tone is clarified alabaster pale with aristocratic features; high set cheekbones with graceful facial lines and a narrow gauge chin. He has iconic honey-amber eyes and long shoulder-length achromic white hair. He has Llamnel-like triple points on his slightly elongated pointed ears.

He notably has bioluminescent tattoos created from a specialized bright violet ink manufactured by bacteria found in the Shrine of Ifmir where he was created. The Tattoo placement is on his right upper arm, which features a depiction of the Goddess Voxphine in scantily clad silks and on his chest of Ifmir's hammer.

He is idealistic and has a refreshed view of the role of the Lorath people, seeing the new age under the Democratic Imperium of Nepleslia as a time of opportunity for collaboration and unity between the houses and their new protectors.
