History

Family (or Creators)

Pre-RP

Moira received perfectly normal Lorath schooling as a youngster, excelled in mathematics and history in her advanced studies, and proceeded smartly to the Matriarchy Central War College. It was here that it became painfully obvious that her small build and her temperament made her quite ill-suited for the personal combat that is the signature of the Fyuunen clan; to compensate for this, Moira excelled in the study of starship-based weaponry. So what if she can't use a sword as well as her cousins? She can blow things up on a far more profound scale!

She completed the officer's training courses adequately and has entered the service as a Lieutenant.

Skills

Fighting

Moira is a positively wretched fighter - by Fyuunen standards. To everyone else, she's still a seven-foot-tall wall of muscle who's specialised in wielding paired four-foot-long blades.

Starship Operations

Moira's true specialty is in the care and feeding of a starship's weapons systems. She is exceptionally skilled in their use in even the most stressful combat situations, and she has picked up some proficiency in other aspects of bridge operations as well.

Leadership

Though Moira is hardly one for public speaking, she has a sharp tactical sense and can generally be counted on to put together worthwhile military plans; more to the point, she is an able administrator.

Knowledge: History

Moira's second-favourite topic during her schooling, she is quite familiar with the histories of both the Lorath and the UOC.

Survival

Like all Fyunnens, Moira is trained for individual survival, able to find her own food and water, construct makeshift weapons, navigate by use of landmarks and stars overhead that are visible, construct shelters, signal for assistance, and conceal her position.

Communication

Moira is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, starships, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. She is fluent in Yamataian and Lorath. She can speak and write both correctly and efficiently and can write reports, fill forms, issue orders under fire, etc.

Domestics

Moira is quite capable of taking care of herself without resorting to servants.

Finances

Moira 'Adia' Fyuunen is currently a Lieutenant in the LSDF. She receives a weekly salary of -salary- per week.
