- Ha'byl Aromji Misalngt, Mother, Deceased
- Juk'le Baston Misalngt, Brother
- Sam'hua'jg Urnium Misalngt, Uncle, Deceased
- Mor'trya Mirdel Misalngt, Aunt

Pre-RP

Born into a very scientifically inclined family. Both of Sa'ryl's parents were in scientific professions. Her mother, Ha'byl Aromji Misalngt, was a professor at a Lorath university for engineers. Her father, Mi'kln'tik Horunam Misalngt, was a researcher working for a big pharmaceutical corporation. When she grew older her parents enrolled her in many different scientific schools, trying to get her to follow their footsteps. She was immediately receptive and very quickly she became a prodigy. Because of her talent she was chosen by the Lorath government to embark on the secret Aurora project. Upon her return five years later, she decided to split from the Lorath scientific institutes to work for the better good of the UOC. In order to do so she joined the United Manufacturing Corporation.

Skills

Communication

Sa'ryl is familiar with all forms of communication, including communication during FTL flight. She is capable of deciphering and using almost any radio or communications device meant for humanoid beings.

Chemistry

Sa'ryl is capable of creating, combining, and disassembling any substance she can get her hands on. She is incredibly adept at the usage of chemistry in almost any form, and makes most chemistry professors look like amateurs.

Technology Operation

Sa'ryl is capable of operating any computer system meant for humanoids, including those which she may have to decipher first.

Mathematics

Sa'ryl is incredibly knowledgeable in the field of mathematics and can triangulate an angle for a bouncing laser in seconds in her head. Her mathematical skills have been called “prodigious” by multiple UMC heads.

Medical and Science

Sa'ryl holds massive banks of knowledge concerning quantum physics, quantum mechanics, astrophysics and other phenomena. This has aided her greatly in her scientific endeavors.

Engineering

Over the course of the Aurora project, Sa'ryl became incredibly learned in the field of engineering. She is capable of designing and building military mecha, power armor, small starships, and scientific installations.

Maintenance and Repair

Sa'ryl has been maintaining and repairing her own equipment and the equipment of her friends and/or superiors throughout her entire life. She is very, very good at it.

Drawbacks

Despite her incredible knowledge of the universe and its workings, Sa'ryl has some very bad drawbacks. She is sick - diagnosed with an incurable disease at a young age. However, due to her firm beliefs in the cosmic workings of the universe, she refuses to soul transfer, as it would interfere with the natural order. Physically, she is very weak and frail due to this disease. She is incapable of fighting to any extent, and has little stamina. She requires two to three hours more sleep than unafflicted Lorath, and cannot run for more than a minute.
