Build and Skin Colour: As she has aged, Carina has begun to develop a more feminine build. She maintains the same tanned, almost olive-toned complexion of her youth.

Facial Features and Eye Colour: High Cheekbones, a small nose, and slightly dark rosy lips. She has cheeks that make you want to pinch them, and a combination of Latin, and Italian feminine good looks as well as cat-like dark hazel eyes that seem to sparkle slightly in certain lighting. She is typically seen wearing a smile, or a look of mischief on her face.

Hair Colour and Style: Carina has long black hair down to the middle of her back that ends in a slight curl. Usually, it is left straight, and free, but combed and neat. Her long bangs tend to curl a little above or right at her cheeks.

Distinguishing Features: Carina shares some of her father's natural good looks, and combines that with her mother's into a beautiful face, which promises to likely keep her father on his toes from anybody he does not approve of when she is older. Carina is also fairly expressive in regards to how she is feeling given certain situations.

Cybernetic Enhancements

- Brain Spider: NAM Medtech - Cerebral Chip
- Skeletal Replacement: Lazarus MODUS universally compatible passive powered-endoskeleton
- Lung Replacement: A decent quality, sturdy replacement set of lungs as a result of damage. Has basic filtering for pollutants which also can slightly resist toxic fumes for a few moments.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Carina has grown up in a world rife with some hardship as she was the daughter of a single mother struggling to keep a roof over both their heads and food in their bellies. While she is still young at sixteen, despite some of the hardships she had endured this has not put a damper on the girl. Quite the opposite, she has maintained an upbeat attitude as she has aged. Having been around children her own age has also helped her psychological development, as she is a fun-loving, down to earth and slightly mischievous teen. Her natural curiosity meshes well with the fact she will absorb what she is taught like a sponge and knows her “rights from wrongs” when it comes to the law... and how to avoid them when necessary.

She can be mildly well mannered due to growing into it.

- Likes: Any kind of Metal Music, DJENTROPIC, Sugary Foods, Phalanx Phillip, Easy Days
- Dislikes: Thunder, Horror Movies, Some Vegetables, Snobs, “Frilly” Things
- Goals: Her goals are murky at best right now.

History

Pre-RP

YE 25: A Night to Remember

It was on a night in the year YE 25 that a much younger Rico, (Age 19) found a woman he fancied at a local bar in Los Apagos. Several drinks, and a few sweet nothings later Rico added another notch to his belt. However, after he left, the woman, who's name is Mya, found she was pregnant a few weeks later. Unable to find, or contact Rico, Mya was soon on her own. She had no family of which to speak of, and knew working as a dancer at the bar in which she met Rico was now out of the question. So, Mya, now pregnant, and in need of a better job soon struck out, and went to Funky City to make, or break her life, and that of her child.

YE 29: Four Years Later

Mya had found a job working at a local clinic in downtown Funky City, which is in itself not exactly a good thing as downtown is usually a dangerous place. Money was tight but manageable. The woman loved her child a great deal and worked her fingers to the bone to provide proper care, and nourishment for her, often going without herself so that her daughter might eat, and just to pay the bills. It was around mid-YE 29 that a minor civil war, or rather a rebellion broke out on the streets of Funky City. This made Mya nervous, and paranoid for the safety of her child. It was then that she soon took a second job, her plan? To move off-world, to a better environment to raise her child.

YE 30: First Meetings

Half a year later, and many late nights, and long work hours soon led the pair to Fortuna, and therefore Leon City. Mya found a job working in a Money Town Gamble as a cocktail waitress, and all seemed to be going well. Money was certainly better, as was food, housing, and general care. New planets brought new opportunities after all. Carina was now five years old, and had been enrolled into kindergarten at a local school in "Culture Town". She seemed to be doing well, with the marked exception the girl often pulled small acts of mischievousness against her teacher which landed her in trouble.

It was one night after work, and Mya was soon leaving, hoping to catch a transport out to her side of town. However, what should've gone off without a hitch, didn't. Mya inadvertently stumbled upon a 'chat' between local grunts of one of the 'business' syndicates that infested Fortuna, and a local man that owed a sum of money. In the end, the local was shot, and Mya soon discovered by the three men. Not wanting to leave witnesses, Mya soon lost her life, all the while fearing for that of her daughter who was cozily at home, in bed.

It wasn't soon after that the authorities soon found Mya's body a day later, and chalked it up as a murder due to extensive injuries. They eventually found she had a daughter named Carina after running a background ident on the body, and found her at home. When the local authorities told the child of her mother's death, she was distraught, and heartbroken. Eventually they took her with them to the police station, and tried to find any relatives of Mya's that could take the girl in. However, Mya had none, so, they ran Carina's DNA profile through their systems, and found a match for her father who was none other than Rico Sanroma. It was at this time, that they contacted the Nepleslia CPS, and informed them of the situation.

YE 41: Present Day

Eleven Years later, Carina Sanroma, only daughter to Rico Sanroma her biological father, and Suku Matsobuki her adoptive mother had grown into a vibrant young woman in a world rife with crime, violence and who knows what else. Of course the Los Apagos native got into her fair share of trouble as well. Fights, breaking and entering, and once hotwiring an airbike to flee the crime scene of an 'Accidental' hacking of a Nana Foster's ice cream vending machine which 'conveniently' spewed forth money and ice cream in kind.

When she told her parents, it caused an uproar. She wanted to be a Marine. She had grown up around them, heck, even being on a warship chocked full of them on an older Hray-Class Gunship called the Acadia for some time. Reflecting on such experiences just seemed to spur her on to becoming one herself. At least in this instance of willful behavior, she had chosen an occupation her mother had always wanted her to into after graduating high school and moving on to college. Even if she skewed her mother, Suku's desire that her daughter get into the medical field. She would become a doctor... just in the military. She could take online courses to finish high-school and gain hands-on experience after being assigned to and trained by SAW. And from there get her first assignment and ride out her contract as the Imperium was not at war. It was the perfect plan, right? ...right?

Skills

Fighting

Carina has undergone the NSMC's rigorous basic training. She is capable of defending herself in CQC. She is also familiar with handheld weaponry such as slugthrowers, rifles and usage of grenades.

Communication

Carina is fluent in Trade, and some Yamataian. She can write Trade well, and Yamataian is still somewhat of an enigma to her to write.

Mathematics

Carina can perform highschool-grade mathematics up to calculus, algebra and some trigonometry.

Domestic

While her mother was away at work, she had to fend for herself at home. So, she knows how to make the most basic of things mostly, some snacks, and is able to clean.

Physical

Already physically fit, Carina continues to run herself through the exercise drills from basic and those she used at home.

Rogue

What Nepleslian child would not be at the very least just a tad streetwise? None, that's who. Carina knows the basics, having been sheltered from most things. But she is capable of using her small size, a pout here, and her big eyes there as a means of getting something she wants sometimes, provided the person is susceptible to her "cute factor", and doesn't know how she operates.

Medical

Fresh from basic, Carina had chosen the medical track. While very new to her chosen profession, she is capable of combat first aid as needed in the field.

Savtech JANE: Elsae

Considered a precursor unit to what is now considered the standard JANE. Elsae was originally cultured, and created by Melchoir Vel Steyr one of the first CEOs of Nepleslian Arms and Munitions. This particular JANE's neural cells are cultured from those of one of the other Vel Steyr children, likely their young sister Elsa Vel Steyr and had been given to the younger, Fian Vel Steyr as his personal unit. After a 'mishap on Starbase Golding in YE 29, Carina Sanroma came into possession of the unit due to quite literally knocking herself out by running into a bulkhead after a fright incited by Fian. The Master Chief had never recovered his JANE, instead likely having forgotten her again as he so often did much to Elsae's chagrin. Due to this, Elsae has become the personal JANE of Private Sanroma. A secret she has kept out of fear that the beanpole power armor pilot may come to reclaim his property. Due to her age and companionship with the young woman, Elsae has become quite protective of Carina, going to such lengths as a desire for aftermarket upgrades to boost her capabilities in this regard. But let it not be said that age does not come without experience. For even though Elsae started off as one of the first units. She is by no means a pushover when dealing with other JANE units or other AI she comes across. However, Elsae tends to act in a more tactical, cunning manner instead of the sheer brute force persuasion despite the capability of doing so.

She is known for her calm and polite demeanor and gains a more motherly tone when interacting with her owner, Carina and can be quite stern when others happen to interact negatively to her charge. Currently, Carina keeps Elsae to herself, whether on her person or within her head is debatable as the little matchbox-sized card has never been seen or she keeps the unit well hidden on her person. Much to the JANE's amusement, the normally boisterous Sanroma scion has a flare for the dramatic regarding her AI companion and its whereabouts.
