History

Family (or Creators)

The Ha'na Family:

Father: Dy'ra Unich'tozheniye Mother: Dy'ra Istse'leniye Sister: Dy'ra Ket'sueki

Pre-RP

Cher'naya grew up as the youngest siblings of a family of three, all of whom looked after her while she was growing up; one notable sibling was Dy'ra Ket'sueki, her older sister. As she grew up, her bond with her older sister strengthened, thanks in large part of her spending her time teaching Cher'naya what she needed to know to survive in the world. Because Cher'naya viewed men as being impatient and annoying, her relationship with her father suffered - while the one with her mother and siblings only got stronger as the years passed.

Shortly after coming of age, Cher'naya's older sister left to join the Volunteer Military; leaving Cher'naya without a mentor and a loving friend and sister. Determined to follow in Dy'ra Ket'sueki's stead, Cher'naya spent much of her time in hard training, improving herself not only physically but also mentally and soon the chance to put all of her training to the test came. During one of several survival courses, she would nearly fall prey to one of the planet's various creatures; surviving thanks only to her agility and quick wits, although not before suffering a jagged wound on her stomach. Falling back on some of her medical training allowed her to properly patch up her wound, although it still hurt in the days that followed, making life and training difficult - although not impossible. Despite the problems she had encountered, she still managed to pass her tests and was quickly given her first assignment.
