History

Pre-RP

He was an only child and only had his mother, his father dying in the volunteer military when he was very young. He worked hard in school focusing more on the work than the others around him, he passed school with flying colours. He had done a few odd jobs to keep himself and his mother healthy and in good living, his mother becomes deadly ill so he decided to join the volunteer military to help his mother out. When he was training in the wilds a big wild creature attacked his group and he fought it off, the creature leaving a deep scar in his chest. While he was going over the lore and history, they noticed he had an eidetic memory. This ability is what made Or'ion notice otherwise unremarkable Neshaten and Vladi'mir was selected as a Agent for the volunteer military.
