History

Cyrus grew up like a typical Nepleslian boy. He ran with some small gangs when he was a juvenile and came face to face with the law. After serving his time, he decided to turn his life around and joined the NSMC at the age of 16. He was a brash and sarcastic man, who came off as a total asshole...

Still, Cyrus was able to climb through the ranks to obtain the rank of Lieutenant. Many under his command said that he was always honest with his subordinates and that he was a very skilled leader. Cyrus was a part of the 1st Marine Shaik which participated in the Rok'Veru Offensive. They took heavy losses upon the opening wave of the operation. Cyrus was part of the first wave. He was hit by enemy ordinance saving one of his men, which cost him dearly. He lost both his arms and shrapnel ripped up his the left side of his face and eye. Afterwards, he was patched up and continued to serve.

A few years later, he was forced to retire after he struck a superior officer for "being an incompetent waste of sperm." He traveled to the Freebeer system and settled down on New Belfast. Missing his old military life, he started up the Private Military Cooperation Ragnarok.
