History

Pre-RP

Davis grew up with a middle class family on Nepleslia. His life in school included a few fist fights but otherwise not very exiting. To him it was a boring life of just trying to stay out of trouble.

After hearing the exploits of Luca Palvone and the media surrounding the hero who leaves destruction of his enemies in his wake however, was the cause for Davis to grow his hair to make it just like Luca's and it wasn't long before he wanted to grow up to be just like Luca, even invented his own middle name. Davis was then given a gun as a present when he was 10 which he took to the alley to practice shooting. It wasn't long before he and a friend began searching the city for "evil doers" which typically ended with them being beat up and guns stolen if they had them. On the day Davis did decide to go somewhere he found some money left in the open for himself to grab as he left for the spacedock. His parents didn't mind him leaving for adventure as they too did something similar in their youth, and were too busy to raise their only child.

The Luca wannabe Davis then found his way into the universe, where his first adventures awaited him!
