Physical Characteristics

- Height: 181 cm (5'11")
- Mass: 72.6 kg (160 lbs.)

Build and Skin Color: Alec is fairly athletic in build with slightly broader than average shoulder width. His muscles are leaner instead of bulky, having only really just started working them out in training. His skin is a slightly browned peach in color.

Eyes and Facial Features: Alec has a slightly narrow facial shape with the upper half of the face being broader in relation to the lower half. He has high cheek bones with a prominent lower jaw and a more prominent chin. He has almond shaped eyes that are slightly sharper in the edges with long lashes that are electric blue in color. His lips are full and symmetrical in shape.

Ears: Human shaped ears.

Hair Color and Style: Alec's hair is a medium dark brown in color. His hair is styled in a classic taper with a textured topped, making it look spiky in the front.

Distinguishing Features: Alec's most stand out feature is (clichéd enough) his eyes. They are such a brilliant true-blue (no overtones from other colors in the spectrum) and are extremely bright, energetic, and striking. They really stand out against the darker color of his hair.

Theme Songs: Slipstream is Alec's battle theme.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Alec could be summed up as an adventurous romantic. He is enthralled by the idealistic poetry of being an ace fighter pilot. He is very upbeat and just plain positive. He is very confident but not arrogant....well okay he can be a 'little' arrogant at times, but hey it goes with the life style.

When it comes to adversity and high pressured situations Alec really shines. He secretly likes added pressures and stakes due to it cutting out all unnecessary thoughts. It's either win or lose, which to him makes things pretty simple.

When it comes to sad or depressing situations he tends to harden, not seeming to like to show much emotion in the matter. He will instead either look to comforting others who need it or just move on and work on something. Some may think he brushes off bad situations or circumstances too quickly but he has it figured in his head that what's done is done, no point dwelling on what you can't change. This can come off as evasive and maybe even to some as immature. But for him it is more of a matter of being strong for others and not dwelling on himself.

Alec is a big advocate of team work. He wants to be the best pilot in the entire Star Army of Yamatai but he isn't a fool. He knows he can't get there on his own. In his opinion if you could what would be the fun in that? The romanticized idea of camaraderie in the military would also have a lot to do with it and has helped shape his view on how things are supposed to be. He wants to have a close, tight-knit team to work with that can almost be like a second family.

Finally he has a thing for taking charge. He doesn't do it to undermine anyone or to cause any problems. It just comes naturally for him, and takes a lot of mental awareness on his part to stop himself.

- Likes: Flying, grabbing a beer with friends, taking charge, Neppys, Airbikes, sitting at the fantail of a ship, working on mechanical anything, Aethersperm, chicks, spicy beef stew, fresh water eel on rice, playing liar's dice, winning, spending time with close friends, dogs
- Dislikes: Losing, bad COs, jerks, not being able to fly, grapefruit, people who eat with their mouth open, quitters, people with low self esteem
- Goals: BE THE GREATEST PILOT IN ALL THE KNOWN UNIVERSE!!!!!!!, become the CO of his own squadron, be recognized as an ace, do something heroic and thus be mentioned in history text books, meet the Empress, get in a really awesome rivalry with an enemy ace pilot that protracts itself out for so many missions till it finally has a dramatic finish in which Alec shoots them down and as they are blowing up they have this profound moment where they find out they weren't really that much different from each other, get a girlfriend (what young guy doesn't have this as a goal?), date a Ketsurui Samurai (bragging rights), date a member of the Ketsurui family (umm yeah bragging rights), help discover a new habitable planet that has a new undiscovered cognizant species, own a house, get a NH-33M companion that follows him on adventures while chiming in with cute things and also works as an alarm clock

History

Family (or Creators)

Richard Wyrick-Father-48 (Born Pre-History - Before YE: 01)-Alive

Ellena Wyrick-Mother-47 (Born Pre-History - Before YE: 01)- Alive

Arron Wyrick-Brother-(Born YE: 09)-Deceased (YE: 32)

Pre-RP

Alec's history is a fairly simple and short one. His father and mother grew up in the rough, gang filled streets of Funky City and saw enough to know if they could help it they didn't want that for their children. So a year after Arron was born Richard Wyrick used his savings to buy a Ge-T1 Shuttle he named 'The Funky Fortune' and started a trading business as a merchant. Alec grew up going to different planets, helping his father in his trading business. This helped give him more of a sense of worldliness about him that aided him in not following most Nepleslian preconceptions of other cultures. When his brother turned 16 he joined the Greens and became a fighter pilot. Alec looked up to his brother and enjoyed hearing his stories from the military whenever he would come home on leave. In YE: 32 when the NMX attacked Nepleslia Alec's brother was killed in action. Being such a close knit family this came as a hard blow to the Wyricks. It would be easy to draw parallels between his brother being a pilot and Alec's desire to become one. He began to solidify his idea on wanting to become a fighter pilot and started studying for the military entrance exam. When he turned 18 Alec enlisted into the Star Army of Yamatai instead of the Star Army of Nepleslia for personal reasons.

Skills

Communications

Alec is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, ships, ground vehicles, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. Due to travelling a lot with his father's business most of his life he is actually fluent in four languages. Nepleslian, Yamataian, Seraphim, and Abwheran thought the last one he can sometimes have a little trouble with.

Starship Operation (Fighter/Shuttle)

Before joining the Star Army of Yamatai Alec had over four years under his belt flying his father's shuttle, with assistance of course. He took to flight school like it was a second nature. This to his pride allowed him to graduate top of his class. He is very capable when it comes to flying basic one to two seat fighter craft.

Fighting

Alec went through the basic hand-to-hand combat training that all members of the Star Army of Yamatai do in basic. Since he was going to flight school he did not attend the advanced classes in this skill area.

Mathematics

Alec can perform to the expected level in this area. This being one of his least favorite subjects he only studied so far as to assist with his piloting as well as meet the standard of the Star Army of Yamatai.

Technology Operation

Alec is capable of operating any computer system that uses the Kessaku OS, found on all Star Army starships. He is proficient in entering and/or searching for information.

Medical

Alec has only been trained in the very basic of emergency response care that all members of the Star Army of Yamatai attend.

Maintenance and Repair

This is a skill he developed more over natural inclination than professional training. Having had to help fix his father's shuttle on more then one occasion as well as a semi successful attempt at building his own airbike at age 14. He actually likes to tinker around with mechanical anything if the situation allows it.
