Andoru Sukai in Roleplay

Andoru Sukai is a Player Character played by Durruti and is currently involved in the plot.

Physical Characteristics

Height: 5'5" Mass: 140 lbs

Build and Skin Colour: Sukai possesses a slender frame and pale skin, while military training has gained him a small amount of muscle tone.

Facial Features and Eye Colour: Sukai's face is rough and unusually gaunt; a thin beard frames sunken cheeks slightly reddened from constant contact with freezing temperatures. His green eyes are ringed with faint shadows from too many nights of too little sleep.

Hair Colour and Style: Atop his head lies a short yet shaggy mass of black hair, often inexpertly flattened by hand.

Distinguishing Features: None.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Sukai has a strong tendency for melancholy. Although he enjoys entertaining people and can be sociable when he pleases, his demeanor is often wistfully depressed. This disappears, however, when he is performing for a crowd or piloting any manner of flying craft; the concentration and focus necessary for either brings excitement enough to negate Sukai's usual ennui. When something does manage to break through his usual face of apathy, Sukai's emotions are unbridled; when he feels, he feels strongly. His depression stems from what he sees as a rather shallow life, one where most or all needs are carelessly provided for by technology and the government. Joining the Peacekeeper Forces was his answer to an unfulfilled existence, as universal peace seemed a meaningful pursuit to dedicate himself to.

Likes: Forests, silence, parties, folk music, creativity, improvised entertainment, philosophy, flying craft, piloting. Dislikes: Death, consumerism, hot climates, stagnation, humorless people. Goals: To find some meaning in his own life and bring peace and prosperity to the galaxy.

History

Pre-RP

Born to a young Yamataian couple in the Blackport Prefecture of Yamatai, Sukai had a comfortable upbringing in the city of Lorrheim. His father, Andoru Nikora, is a cargo transporter for Ketsurui Zaibatsu; his mother, Paniyawa Besame was a researcher for PNUgen Corporation before committing suicide soon after Sukai's birth. His distraught father fell into a deep depression, hardly managing to take care of Sukai in his childhood years. Over time, however, Sukai's father bonded with him, instilling a passion for creativity and freedom to counter the shallow world that had taken his mother's life. Sukai took up flying as a profession, like his father, and music as a hobby, enjoying both as a release from the weight of everyday life. After the colonization of Yugumo Cluster, Sukai moved to Jiyuu V in order to have a peaceful home of his own on a quiet planet, enjoying the relative solitude of the forests and glaciers (so long as no tourists were nearby).

His mother's death and the effects of it he saw in his father gave Sukai a strong resentment for death and those who cause it, and so strongly supported the Jiyuuan bid for independence as a neutral, peaceful nation. Soon after the UOC Peacekeeper Forces were formed, he weighed the idea of volunteering. On one hand, he didn't wish to cause death, the military was a strict place, and his father would likely object; on the other, the Peacekeepers promoted diplomacy and non-lethal force, and the environment might instill in him the sense of purpose he needed to live happily. After a long while of consideration and discussion with his father, who eventually ceded that Sukai had every right to join the military but felt he'd regret the choice, he enlisted in the United Outer Colonies Peacekeeper Forces in order to promote peace and well-being throughout the galaxy, or so he hopes.

Sukai has been an amateur musician since the age of 12, touting an acoustic guitar and a fair singing voice as his tools of the trade. Music is one of his passions; although he never attained professional status with his works, his proficiency in writing and playing music is considerable.

Sukai has received intensive hand-to-hand combat training (primarily focused on disabling opponents) and has followed up that knowledge with a rigorous training program.
