Otherwise he would spend time with friends. Rarely would he spend time with himself and if he did he tried multiple hobbies. Cooking and playing the harp were his favorites and he soon stuck with those two. Eventually his grandmother died in her sleep. Aoto mourned her death for a long time; but he knew that doing nothing would only distress her if she was still alive. Looking at how important his family was and realizing that he had no parents of his own and wish for them. He promised to raise a family of his own and take care of his children.

While his grandfather was retired, Aoto often tried finding part-time work to buy his own needs. Growing up he eventually decided to look for a career helping others and promoting peace.
