Physical Characteristics

Height: 5'3 Mass: 110 Measurements: 36DD-25-36 Build and Skin Color: Emiyu's was born with a well formed curvy figure instead of the thinner, girlish figure of most Nekos. She takes great pride in her curves and has a tendency to flaunt them a bit now and then. She still retains the grace and flexibility of her neko comrades. Her natural skin is a delicate cream color. But she often changes its color to that of a light blue or whatever color she is in the mood for that day. The most common color is a robins egg blue.

Eyes and Facial Features: Emiyu's eyes are naturally a deep green like the core of a fine emerald. However, she often uses the holographic projectors in her skin to change them to a golden yellow or a ruby red

Ears: Her ears are the same color as her hair. However, she often uses her holographic projectors to change their color, along with her hair

Hair Color and Style: Emiyu's hair falls down to the small over her back and is a beautiful pure white with a healthy sheen. She prefers a more layered look then the standard straight cut that other enjoy. She also frequently changes the color of her hair with holograms.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Emiyu can easily be described as a cool individual. Outwardly, she presents a composed demeanor that says she is not easily disturbed or unsettled, confident in her ability to deal with whatever life has to throw at her. This passive confidence can come across as arrogance from time to time and has been known to irritate certain superiors, especially males. In a effort to combat this misunderstanding she has developed a habit of using subtle flattery and submissive gestures to deflect any aggression thrown at her.

While she does not discount the virtues of hard work in order to succeed, she does realize that there is more than one way to catch a fish. She realized early on that her atypical figure had advantages and that attraction was a very useful tool, particularly with males. Her own experimentation has fostered a interest in sexual activities bordering on nymphomania. While the physical pleasure is a deciding factor, it is not the main cause for her potential interest in pleasing another. She knew the moment that she became self aware that she desired power. Whatever it took, she wished to be powerful, to climb as high as she could in life, whether it be as the captain of a ship, a space station, a fleet or a empire, she had to acquire as much powers as she could and she has no qualms with sacrificing her own happiness if it meant more power. This would naturally lead one to believe that she is a judgmental, self satisfying individual who regards others only what they can do for her. It is true that Emiyu does judge others by how much good they can do for her and her goals. However, this does not mean that she walks about with a self-satisfied attitude, regarding others as worthless pieces of trash. She is smart enough to realize that everyone has some manner of innate talent and purpose and while that person may not have discovered it then, they may in the future. In light of this, she strives to make as many friends and contacts as she can, all of which could be useful to her in the future.

Emiyu has a very passionate side that she hides from others. She has been known to show emotional instability in times of great stress, particularly anger. She is mentally inclined to fight the source of this stress, especially if it is another person. While it takes quite a lot of provocation, she can fly into a almost berserker type rage and employ her full might into destroying the source of her rage. Her rage, however, is not blind. She will not attack comrades randomly, but strive to destroy the subject of her duress however she can with the resources on hand. Once she has calmed down and provided that she has not destroyed her target, she will leave off the attack and proceed as normal.

Her greatest fear in life is becoming just another name and number in a endless sea of statistics and rosters. Her lust for power and outrageous appearance are all means of fighting this fear. She wishes to be important, powerful, rich, any or all of the above. She believes that if she attains these things that she will never be another be just another barcode at the end of the day. This lust for power is , however, augmented by a already innate allure to the concept. Her main choice for becoming a starship operator was her interest in powerful weapons and expensive equipment. It is only natural that she would wish to possess these admirable qualities for herself.

Likes: Anything powerful or expensive, large guns, men, spicy foods, social gatherings, sexy clothes, money, attention, people who are successful, kind or intelligent, gifts.

Dislikes: Blowhards, disgusting foods, bitter foods, being underestimated, being broke, stuck up people, giving in to her stronger emotions

Goals: To become a powerful individual. To not be ignored or discounted.

History

Family (or Creators)

Pre-RP

There is not much to be said about Emiyu's past seeing as she is currently only three months old. Those three months were a turbulent time for Emiyu, a time of self discovery and experimentation. She received more then her share of reprimands from superiors, thinking that she was coping a attitude with them when this was not the case. She seemed to adapt very well to the desires of others while keeping her true feelings hidden away behind her fair facade.

She received training for the operation of starship weaponry which when she first discovered her lust for power. She has a near unhealthy interest in powerful starship weaponry and threw herself into the research of current Star Army ship classes and their respective armaments, engines and other components.

She is currently awaiting her first deployment.

In YE 43 she was promoted to Shoi Kohosei via the Accelerated Officer Program.

Skill Areas

Communication

Emiyu is familiar with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, starships, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. Emiyu is fluent in Nepleslian and (optionally) Yamataian. She can speak and write both correctly and efficiently and can write reports, fill forms, issue orders under fire, etc

Fighting

Emiyu received hand-to-hand combat training, followed up with a rigorous training program. She is skilled and experienced in combat both in Yamatai-like conditions and in zero-gravity, with and without weapons. Weapons she is trained in include energy pistols, knives, and power armor. She took particular interest in this and is currently seeking further in-depth training

Technology Operation

Emiyu is capable of operating any computer system that uses the Kessaku OS, found on all Star Army starships. She is proficient in entering and/or searching for information.

Mathematics

Emiyu received basic mathematics training, to including up to algebra and trigonometry.

Entertainment

Emiyu loves a good party and is a fair hand at dancing, though she has not had much time to practice or anyone to practice with. Her innate deviant nature tends to emerge behind closed doors, which ended up in some very interesting, very lovely evenings for a few fortunate men.

Starship Operations

[Weapons] Emiyu is familiar with the all common weapon systems used in the Yamataian Star Army. She is gifted at bringing the full power of a starships arsenal to bear on single or multiple targets. She has also been experimenting with simulations in order squeeze every last bit of efficiency out of common starship weapon systems

Engineering

Emiyu has a standing interest in weapon and starship design and hopes to one day be able to design a new capital ship for the Yamatai Star Army.
