History

Pre-RP

Faye was commissioned and stationed on Nepleslia shortly after her birth in YE 27. She would stay there until right before Nepleslia seceded from Yamatai in YE 28. She met several Nepleslians, many of which influenced her opinion on others. She had been called such hateful names... The only help that she had ever received was from her sisters, but they didn't seem to understand. A few Nepleslians were kind to her; however, she believed that they probably just felt sorry for her. Faye soon became solitary to everyone and everything, and she could be seen just staring off into space without a care. She learned to trust no one, no matter what. From there, she has been primarily working on Yamatai, which saved her from the massacre at the Battle of Hoshi no Iori. Recently, however, she showed an interest in joining SAINT as a security specialist with the hope of one day accomplishing her dream.

UOC

However, Faye joined the UOC out of respect of her old friend and commander, Tomori Rina, who was an admiral of the UOCPF. However, her heart yearned to return to Yamatai. She planned on returning there to possibly work for Shimizu-Motoyoshi Akina (清水本吉明菜). She and Akina had become friends after bumping into one another on Yamatai a while before the UOC decided to secede to become its own nation. Faye was ultimately unsure of what to do as she was torn between homes, friends, and commanders but eventually decided to rejoin Yamatai to work for Taisho Akina.

Yamatai

After serving Akina for a while, Faye eventually was transferred out of the Taisho's presence. Feeling as though she was found unworthy in some way, the Neko decided to change her form. Her long, brown hair that was usually tied into a long ponytail with long bangs was changed to short, blue hair with white bangs. Her sapphire blue eyes were also changed to a light violet and were no longer droopy, but alert and ready. She dutifully served Yamatai in a variety of roles and missions for Star Army Intelligence before finally being transferred to the Kaiyō in YE 39.

Skills

Communication

Being a Nekoalkyrja, she has natural telepathic communication abilities. She can also read, write, and understand both English and Japanese. Radio operation is no problem for her either, being capable of sending and receiving transmissions simultaneously.

Fighting

She has received hand-to-hand combat training, as well as training in energy pistols, knives, and power armor. She is skilled and experienced in combat both in Yamatai-like conditions and in zero-gravity, with and without weapons.

Technology Operation

She is quite capable of operating any computer system that uses the Kessaku OS. She is proficient in entering and/or searching for information.

Mathematics

She has taken received training in mathematics up to geometry and advanced algebra.

Knowledge

Star Army law and history were both drilled into her by her superiors and mentors. She has memorized all historical data from YE 25 to present day.

Tactics

She is a fairly skilled tactician. She will take her time to effectively devise a strategy for almost any situation whether aboard ship, in space, or planetside.

Entertainment

Although she doesn't flaunt it, Faye is an excellent singer. She prefers to hum if someone is even close to being within earshot, but there are times when she sings sad, little songs to herself.
