Katomi Osaka in Roleplay

Katomi Osaka is a Player Character played by Scot and is currently involved in the Fort Ready plot.

Physical Characteristics

Height: 4' 9" Mass: 96lbs. Measurements: Imagine them Bra Size: B

Build and Skin Color: Pale skin and skinny, she doesn't look very strong and sometimes seem meeker than more gun ho Neko's.

Facial Features and Eye Color: Her brown eyes seem big because she never seems to close them with thin eyebrows

Hair Color and Style: Short straight black hair and a small strand of hair sticking out from the top of her head.

Distinguishing Features: Cat like ears, 4 fingers, SPINE on the back, vacant like stare that is a little creepy, small strand of hair that refuses to give to grooming

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Katomi Osaka is somewhat of a dreamer and sometimes a scatterbrain. She is constantly in thought about everything, though these things are typically small things that in the universe of things, do not really matter. The girl can be talking to someone one moment then suddenly hit some sort of brain lag that freezes her in place, expression and all as some random thought took precedent over what was being done. She also has a habit of doing whatever that comes to mind, out of curiosity despite the consequences.

Despite this, she can perform fine hand techniques without too much problem. Osaka works best under pressure, when her scattered thoughts are focused on a specific point and the job in front of her.

Likes: Building robot things and/or models, Anime, thinkin' bout stuff. Dislikes: Bugs, the color green, cheesy action flicks, soda pop caps. Goals: -Discover the answer to why Star Army is not called Space Army.

History

Pre-RP

Katomi Osaka is the youngling of two Nekovalkyrja who served in the military, however her life was a little complex since her parents and their other lovers lived in the same household after they had retired from the military and changed their last names to Katomi, thus their home was the Katomi House. Originally the plan was to have their own den to themselves, though one of the Neko's apparently loved another so much to want her youngling and thus Osaka was born, named after a comedian.

Osaka was probably the weirdest of the children, having an interest in the paranormal and thinking about random facts of life that no one really cares about. Privacy for the Katomi House was also a problem with a house containing Osaka, as most private moments can sometimes be ruined by her walking in at the right moment to be awkward. After three years living with Osaka, the head of the Katomi House used persuasiveness to get the Neko to join the military, or at least boot camp to leave them alone for a while. After initial testing, it was decided to try to make her into a medic and sent her to Fort Ready. Upon arrival she transferred to the NH-29 Neko body to finish her training.

The Katomi House also cared for four more younglings over time, though Osaka only had seen 2 of the others before leaving for Star Army.

Skills

Communication:

Osaka been trained with basic radio operation and procedures and can make transmissions to and receive transmissions from other characters through headsets, starship, power armor, and shuttles in both combat and non-combat conditions. Osaka is fluent in Nepleslian, and Yamataian. She can speak and write both correctly and efficiently and can write reports, fill forms, issue orders under fire, etc. She also has the Nekovalkyrja ability of telepathic communication.

Fighting:

Osaka is trained with hand-to-hand combat training, followed up with a rigorous training program. She is skilled in combat both in Yamatai-like conditions and in zero-gravity, with and without weapons. Weapons she is trained to include energy pistols, knives, and power armor.

Technology Operation:

Osaka is capable of operating any computer system that uses the Kessaku OS, found on all Star Army starships. She is proficient in entering and/or searching for information.

Mathematics:

Osaka received basic mathematics training, to including up to algebra and trigonometry. Ask her to add $2+2$ and you may get a different answer than you were expecting however.

Medical:

Osaka is trained in First Aid, as well as advanced medical abilities. Despite her personality she works very well under pressure and isn't bothered by blood, and has downloaded and trained in various medical techniques.

Knowledge:

Osaka has a very strong memory despite her personality, she knows more about the human body than what a normal person DOESN'T want to know about for example.

Entertainment:

Osaka can play a electric guitar and write music, though she has a hard time writing lyrics and the music she writes typically is noise she likes, and not what others like. She also does a little bit of ice skating she picked up when playing with one of her sisters before army service.
