Dislikes: Pirates, transvestites, and lite beers

Goals: To get by, live, and find the world's biggest and best guns

History

New to the Army, Ichiro came because he was bored with civilian guns. He is a big enthusiast, and knows his responsibilities when handling firing weapons. Not much to say, as he starts as soon as he gets his first orders. Being as his family is all Gunsmiths and Soldiers, he didn't want to do much else when he grew up. Served on the Sakura for a few days, and then transferred to his current Assignment, the Yugumo.

When the Yugumo was over run, his back up was used to resurrect, to be assigned on the YSS Asuka. On his first mission, he was given command of Santo Hei Hara Saruwatari. For the mission, they were to reclaim a still intact and disabled Mishhu vessel. During the boarding, the group encountered enemy fire, in which the Mishhu was able to eject Pods to attack the Asuka. Acting with permission from Taii Kage Yaichiro, Ichiro left the target ship to engage the enemy and attempt to help the Asuka's defenses. During the battle, his right arm and left leg were severely damaged by enemy rocket fire. Having been healed by the Asuka's Synth-tubes, he is about to enjoy some time off that ISN'T due to being revived.

Time passed, and he joined the UOC the day it was founded. He decided to take some time off from being in the army, building himself a nice house just outside the capitol city. Recently, he signed up for the UOC Peacekeeper forces, feeling the itch to serve. He now serves as a Cadet on the Zenpyou, hoping to continue his family's history of serving for the greater good.

Skills

Fighting: Ichiro is well versed in ranged combat, especially with guns. He was a top sharp shooter in his Basic team, earning him the nickname Hawkeye. He also has the Mandatory classes in Power Armors under his belt.

Starship Operations: Though he is good in most fields, he excels in Small Craft. If need be, he can perform a good number of other things, excluding most medical.

Physical: Ichiro spent a good time training his body to lift heavy things, so he could be the heavy gunner in any group. This way, he also runs quickly when not loaded down.

Vehicals: Excelling in manuverability, he is able to take almost (key word) any land or sea craft and make it do things some people can't.

Survival and military: Thanks to Basic Training, he knows most the ground rules about various tactics and survival abilities.

Knowledge: He is THE man to go to on Guns, Gun stats, Gun lore, or anything else. Kind of a savant in that way.

Culinary: He is very good at making rice, noodle, and beef dishes, but nothing much else.
