Physical Characteristics

- Height: 165cm/5ft 5in
- Mass: 46.25k/102lb
- Measurements: 35D-24-35

Build and Skin Color: Misato's lithe yet strong form, is cloaked within her gray skin. She is lean without looking overly thin. Her muscles are defined by faint outlines of her flesh.

Eyes and Facial Features: She has a stern, hard-edged, freckled heart-shaped face with almond shaped golden eyes.

Ears: Her fuzzy light blue Neko Ears twitch from time to time the only marking on them is the nick in the top of the left ear. They only calm down in combat or other stressful situations.

Hair Color and Style: Her dark blue hair is cut short, allowing only a few inches to free float in Zero-g.

Distinguishing Features: Her identification tattoo is etched down her backbone starting at the hair line and continuing down to the top of her SPINE. She has thin gray tail that ends with a tuft of dark blue.

Psychological Characteristics

Personality: Misato is a very misunderstood figure. She places on a mask of indifference and uncaring, and this cold shell is what most see. She tries to ignore her emotions in any official case, fearing that she is too soft, and unfit for her responsibilities. Beneath it all, she is a warm person with perhaps too much sympathy. Very few know her true self, and few ever will. She has repeatedly put herself into harms way so that the rest of the squad could be pulled out safely.

- Likes: She loves steaks for her evening meals, preferably rare and bloody. In her free time she works with her personal weapons and works out, so that all the equipment involved is in peak performance. Other times she prefers to find a quiet warm spot to read old dime store military serials.
- Dislikes: She dislikes fish, large open environments and finds atmosphere reentry disconcerting. PORTAJOHNS
- Goals: She hopes and strives to be a commander of a special operations squad.

History

Misato was made by the Ketsurui Zaibatsu on Yamatai \(Planet\), where she underwent standard Star Army of Yamatai training without any issues. She is eager to receive her first assignment.

Service Aboard the YSS Eucharis

Gifted

Boarded the Eucharis, and joined the crew, Left for a mission to recover the Sho'Sho's clone, Misato received quite a few wounds, and thought the mission on a whole could be considered a success, Misato view her actions and mission performance a failure.

The Nest

As the Crew prepped for a mission, Misato is racked with guilt over her actions on the last mission. Once she was decked out in gear and away with the rest of team 2, she lead her four Neko escorts and fought multiple Ripper units. Team 2 boarded and pirated a NMX ship, finding a torpedo in the bridge Misato helped disarm it. As a battle brewed around the ship she was ordered to modify the torpedo to boost its damage and make it lighter. After building her "Gift" she threw it out an air lock into the Station. When commanded She detonated it. The Ship jumped and the team was brought home to the Eucharis.

Peoples of the North

At the start of the away mission Misato found herself the most senior member of the away team, taking the lead Misato led the group from one bad situation to the next. the shuttle crashing, the first ambush in the NMX base, the shuttle being stolen, to the fact that almost everyone on the team took hits and wounds. the mission ended in Misato taking an Aether Blade in her gut. If it wasn't for the timely arrival of Nayacesen Takeyu, the mission would have been lost, and the team dead. After the mission Misato took full responsibility for the failure of the mission. Since she has tried to hide her guilt and depression by looking after her roommate Murakami Mitsuko (Mimi-chan), Misato maybe mistaking her need for someone around, for feelings for Mimi-chan.

One Man Trash

Upset after the last mission Misato asked if Takeyu would take her on a side operation, so that she could work with him to become a better leader. The operation consisting of Victory, Takeyu, and herself to HX-21. The mission was going off well, but it changed from one that was a lesson to one of investigating an odd Lorath ship on the surface.

During this investigation, the team discovered an ID-SOL who had been a slave aboard this ship, which turned out to be a pirate vessel. After some investigation, the group loaded up several items about the shuttle they rode to the planet on, including an Orchestian and a few others.

HX-12

While investigating the NMX starport that was supposedly destroyed and abandoned, her small squad was attacked by Rippers. Being killed during the assault Misato found herself in a Hemo-tube aboard the ship, looked at suicide charge options to rescue the rest of the team. Instead the starport was destroyed from orbit.

Hanako's World

After the insanity of, apparently, the last few missions. The Eucharis was ordered back to home port to give its crew some liberty.

Immediate plans changed when a marching band arrived to greet the Eucharis and the Misato was given the Rank advancement to Nito Heisho. Flush with indecision she raced off as soon as she could to meet with Takeyu for advice. Which was cut short by having to return to deal with an incident between Mitsuko and Sienna. Once that was solved she left to go shopping for clothes for the dinner.

Misato arrived late to the party and attempted to give a gift of a pistol to Sienna, but through misunderstanding, Sienna panicked and tackled Misato, destroying her kimono in the process. Though once the incident was over nothing was hurt past a bit of silk and a bit of Misato's pride.

After the party Misato got to know Takeyu a bit better.

Service Aboard the YSS Soyokaze

With her promotion she also was transferred aboard the brand new Ship Soyokaze. She was assigned to being the ship's infantry lead. She wasn't thrilled but was ready for the task. Along with her Came Bors, Cheiko, and Takeyu. Takeyu had offered to let her stay with him in his quarters but then after talking to her gave her her own officer quarters.

Mission 1

The Soyo jumped into a system with a large gas giant with a moon, the objective was to rescue the civilian refugees on the moon. The assault started off fairly well, until Misato had her arm blown off and a few holes punched into her. She was ready to continue the fight but the medic sent her back to the ship for some medical treatment. So much for her first operation in lead.
