Personality

Thomas can best be describe as a freight train, it is difficult to stop him but once given the right track he will thunder down it with little regard for anyone dumb enough to try stopping his straight forward movement. he is motivated by improvement, despite coming from rich stock he prefers living life roughly, he is happiest when facing a foe or gallivanting through some godforsaken wilderness. he is known in social climates to drink often but not to such an extent to make himself inept or ineffective, tending to take the high road in negative social interactions up until he is struck then he will fight his would be foe with a indominable will till he is either undisputedly victorious or undoubtedly beaten. Despite his apparent bullheadedness he has a high degree of cunning hidden by said bullheadedness. He is also highly educated thanks to his family's wealth.

History

Thomas Siegfried Franksstone was born 20日 4月 22 in Ayano. born on Ayano to Anna Parsh Franksstone and Chester Bernard Franksstone survivors of the Great Plague, he filled his younger years with his family, his mother taught him how to hunt, while his father taught him to enjoy thinking out of the box coming up with solutions to problems with strategic and tactical thinking. during his teenage years he became a accomplished swordsman however the scars on his body and the prominent saber scar furrowing his face as proof of his martial efforts, around the same time he went into officer school and found himself in a slightly more hostile environment however not one to backdown from a challenge Thomas pushed forward and graduated with high marks.
