Pre RP

- YE 29 Yaiba was created in the 10th day of the first month of YE 29. She spent the next four months at Educational Facility 1 receiving her training for service in the Star Army of Yamatai. She was assigned to a Yui-class Scout and entered the war against the SMX. Being Star Army Infantry she fought in space and on the ground. Later that year she was transferred to a Nozomi-class Scout when the Yui-class Scout was heavily damaged.
- YE 30 Yaiba spent most of this year assigned to a Plumeria-class \(2D\) Medium Gunship but with the war over she spent most of the time training and drilling.
- YE 31 Yaiba was stationed on Kazumi as part of the defense force stationed there. When the evacuation order came she was part of the security team that accompanied the civilians leaving aboard the YSS Freedom.
- After abandoning ship from the YSS Freedom the survivors their way to high ground. The camp was later shelled by NMX artillery, destroying the vehicles, and most of their supplies. Most of the survivors were stunned from the proximity of the blast. While trying to retrieve her possessions Yaiba was shot in the abdomen by a sniper. After the sniper attack, local inhabitants found the survivors and lead them to their village. After recovery Yaiba and several other survivors learned that a SAINT operative was on the planet and supplying the villagers with food and equipment. Yaiba, the survivors and several of the natives left the camp to investigate the NMX presence in the city. The purpose of the group was to evaluate how strong the NMX presence was, and what possible action could be taken. The investigation went bad before they ever got near the city, and the group was scattered.
- After the failed investigation, Yaiba was engaging in a guerrilla style harassment of the NMX forces. During this time she never saw any of the other survivors who were later rescued. She found several 'survivors' from the crash who had been caught by the NMX. Most were too badly injured to survive, so in those cases she had no choice but to stay with them until they died. The few that were able, she got to one of the nearby villages. She spent the past six months with two natives (Ixta and Dilka) who travel with her, and had not seen any other people other than NMX sympathizers, or their victims.

Current Status

Yaiba is on Yamatai \(Planet\) working out the details of her new life.

- YE 33 while on LOA, she accepted a position at Nishitama to help test out some new equipment. During the first test of the pod features they encountered a rogue starship and stopped it. During the first flying in the LAMIA Kai in the nebula in KMS, they went to an abandoned SMX warship, and encountered persons unknown there.
- YE 34 Yaiba began the year still working at Nishitama, trying to help route out the traitorous Tachibana Clan. The conflict turned nearly disastrous as the rogue clan chose to release their bio-weapon inside of Nishitama. Yaiba came up with the idea of using the stations security systems to thwart this and suggested that they vent to station. While that was preparing to take place, she and her team mates went to rescue Yamatai Interstellar News Network \(YINN\) personnel who had been taken hostage. While the surviving hostages were rescued the building was a loss, but having the station lower the gravity in that area, both the team precious seconds.
- Yaiba is currently on the YSS Sakura II Plot her future uncertain.

At the start of the last month of YE 34 Yaiba chose to leave the Star Army and start a new life as a civilian. She has traveled to Yamatai to out-process and transfer to a Minkan maintaining her original appearance.
