History

Pre-RP

Mayuki was born in late YE 28 in Kyoto, Yamatai, at a Ketsurui Zaibatsu factory. She was quickly sent to a Star Army training camp, where she and other Nekovalkyrja learned the ways of fighting and social interaction, soon after it was realized that Mayuki would make an excellent technician. During exercises, she showed proficiency at repairing armor and maintaining weapons longer than was expected of them to break down. She also was able to modify existing tech into a new device, though this came with mixed results and not as effective as factory made items. While not the best mechanic, she has dreams to becoming widely known someday and holds lofty goals for herself to complete in 8 years.
