

Bravemart

Bravemart is a chain of convenience stores that primarily sells generic supplies for space travelers and adventurers. It is operated by the Nepleslian Reds and began expansion in YE 36 from its home in the Rufusland star system.

In addition to selling basic gear, Bravemarts are also places to find jobs, which are often posted in their entrances on bulletin boards and public computer terminals.

Bravemart stores tend to be cluttered, and are often located around civilian spaceports. They accept payments in KS or DA.

Layout

Most Bravemart stores are built to a common design. In the entrance, there is an area with tables and couches that create a sort of lounge for customers to plan their adventures. In this lounge there is a jukebox, vending machines, and a sales window for concessions area that sells fountain drinks and hot dogs for 1 KS. Sleeping is not allowed in the lounge.

Big plans encourage sales, so there are free communications terminals and bulletin boards available for job postings. In the middle part of the shop is the checkout area and restrooms, and a security room. Past those are the rows of merchandise. In the very back is a storage room and loading dock.

Available Items

Here is a list of items available. If you don't find what you need, you can ask for it to be added to Bravemart stores. Some items that Bravemart sells are previously used or sold, but they are always in good and usable condition. If wear is notable, the items are sold at a discount.
