

Geshrinari Armory

The Geshrinari Shipyards Armory is an optional feature that a customer can request. It was created for the Ge-C1-2a - Ookami-Class Light Cruiser.

The Armory is where heavy weapons for the crew and passengers are stored. The standard armory is inside a Osmiridium-armored, cooled, static-free vault. The room has a variety of shelves and weapon racks to hold weapons securely. The armory is a restricted area, and can only be accessed by those with permission from the ship's captain. Typically passengers must surrender their weapons. The weapons are then placed in locking cabinets until the customer is ready to leave the ship.
