

NovaCorp Plasma Pistol

Overview

The predecessor to the Xaser pistol and like it designed and produced by NovaCorp. A solid weapon, just hard to use. In an age where pistols have as many rounds as most sub-machineguns, the utility of this pistol is rather low. But it makes a fine backup weapon, if you can find a place to stick it. Very spendy for its utility, and it lacks the durability of the Xaser.
