

Kimball Muur Custom

✖ Finding that the market for civilian personal armors less saturated in Nepleslia than military Powered Armor, and relatively underdeveloped, the Styrling Muur armor has been modified by Kimball Ltd. in several formats to assist civilians and independent contractors and private security in their various lines of work.

In YE 38, this service became available to the public, each armor costing somewhere between 10,000 to 15,000DA, due to the extensive work that the armorers must do, along with the time involved in creating custom armaments. However, the tradeoff is in the quality of that work; all Kimball Muur Customs come with a lifetime warranty, and are crafted to specifications.

Each armor is customized by special order, and though the armor is based upon the Muur schematic and shares many of its design features, each instance of a Kimball Muur Custom is a little different and is special-tailored to its wearer.

As each armor is made of different materials, they will be listed in the order of their production below. However, they all share the direct lineage of the Styrling Muur Armor, and are recognizable as its direct lineage descendant.
