History

Midnight Infinity was formed in YE 43 by YTP Entertainment founder, Motoyoshi Kaoru. The group was formed after the disbanding of popular Tokyo-based "Neko Infinity" broke up following the love triangle fall out between its members Ingrid Hoshi, Eira Miyagi, and Natalia Higa. It only made sense for the ambitious founder of YTP Entertainment to form her own Yamataian pop group. She pulled her sisters into the group; Motoyoshi Naoko and Motoyoshi Kazumi along with Sasaki Miyu to help make the group complete.

The group only performs when the four Star Army of Yamatai career girls make shore-leave or perform on the ships they serve on. Their first album "War Girls", featured the song "Lonely"¹⁾, was recorded just before the New Year of YE 43 and prior to the group's official formation. It served as their debut platform and gained quick popularity on the club scene in Atarashi Tokyo.

Endorsements

Midnight Infinity was named the official Yamataian pop group of the Kikyo Pie Company, which used their
