

Oasis Park

An Oasis Park is a style of nature park found on Abwehran stations. Based upon a desert oasis, the central part of the park contains a spring or lake with native non-predatory wildlife found in such a biome. While not as majestic as the Alpine Park or inviting as the Water Park, the Oasis Park caters to visitors from desert worlds that might want to find some semblance of home. The Oasis Park has an average of one square kilometer of space.
