

Abwehran Standard Barrack-style Quarters

In order to save volume for more important systems, Abwehrans have used barrack-style quarters in their starships, naval vessels, and aerial capital ships for centuries. Every barrack uses shelf-style bunk beds lining the walls with a series of lockers in between each vertical row of bunk beds. Bunks are always stacked two beds in height.

On the opposite end of the Barracks, there is access to Communal Showers.

Barrack Types

- Staff Officer's Barracks: A six-bed Barrack used to house the Staff of a Flag Officer.
- Officer's Barracks: A six to twelve-bed Barracks¹⁾ used to house Officers. These are normally divided between junior and senior officers.
- Enlisted Barracks: A sixteen-bed Barrack used to house the enlisted personnel on board a vessel.
- Marine Barracks: A twelve-bed Barrack used to house a full squad of Marines on board a vessel.
- Enlisted/Marine Barracks: A sixteen-bed Barrack used to house both enlisted and Marine personnel on board a vessel. This type of Barracks can only be found on small warships.
