

Abwehran Vessel Store

Note: New Products may be added at any time.

A small compartment that is mostly comprised of storage, the vessel store is sealed to everyone but the Duty Quartermaster in charge. To actually purchase an item, a customer must step up to a counter, which is built into the corridor's bulkhead. A door to the interior of the store is located next to it, but only authorized personnel can enter.

The front half of the store, directly behind the counter, contains merchandise that has been unpacked from boxes and available for purchase. A door directly behind the counter leads to the second half of the store that contains merchandise that is boxed up for storage purposes.

Cooling units can be found on both sides of the store for items that must be chilled or frozen. A First Aid Station can be found directly under the counter.
