

Black Syndicate

The Black Syndicate is a Nepleslian network of underworld affiliates. They primarily deal in the areas of arms manufacturing and dealing, and in organized crime (bank robbing, starship theft etc).

Note: The name of the Black Syndicate is based on their traditional black clothing and uniforms, and is not intended to describe its members or to associate any connotation with persons of darker skin tone.

Recently, the Black Syndicate has worked together with the Nepleslian Reds (against the Greens). Zen Armaments is owned by the Black Syndicate. However despite the disastrous twists of luck the Black Syndicate has been facing the past couple of years and the fractured nature of some of the groups they are beginning to regain their footing. Now under new leadership, The Black Syndicate hopes to rise to new heights in this wartorn sector of space. It should be known however that the Blacks have a distinct dislike for the NMX due to 'disrupting business' and actively work behind the scenes where possible to hamper them. Supplying goods and 'services' to those willing to pay, or be indebted in some way, the Black Syndicate has made it a priority to ply its massive wealth and assets in a bid to help turn the tide. For without customers... where would they be?
