

Velcior Type Nose Beam

Following the tradition of Elysian ships having their central weapon being referred to as a 'nose' weapon, the Velcior Nose Beam is designed to be incorporated onto the front of a shuttle and serves as a weaker and more energy efficient variant of the nose weapons found on other ships and uses the same technology as the Beam Eyes firing a high energy electro-magnetic beam cannon.

Location: The 'nose' of the ship. Primary Purpose: Anti-fighter. Secondary Purpose: Anti-mecha.
Damage: MDR 3 Range: 900,000 miles Rate of Fire: 2 times a second
