

Boqatsou (Death curse)

Most members of the Poku Saeruo Degonjo who are warriors will eventually come up with a Boqatsou, Curse of Death or Death Curse. It is pronounced (bōkhăt-sōū). It is something that they work out over time; in fact it is not uncommon for the Death Curse to evolve. It is a phrase that they will say to defy death and possibly make their enemy hesitate. Most start with a fairly simple phrase and as they gain experience and face various dangers, they modify the phrase.

Note: It is not necessary to have a Boqatsou, but having one adds to the flavor of your character.

Sample starting Boqatsou

- You chose a bad time to die.
- You are obviously looking to be killed.
- My blade is sharper than your tongue.

Notable Boqatsou

- Tin-Ta'a Qaedal Aaeas - "I may die today, but not until I see you die first."
- Keyul Aaeas - "I am prepared to send you to Siamaka."
- Legos Miaurm - "I have drawn the blood of over a thousand foes. Yours will soon mingle with theirs on my claws."
