

Niuta Norjopai (Musical Instruments)

This page lists the unique musical instruments that are used by Poku'vonai in the Poku Saeruo Degonjo.

Bag Basoon

This instrument consists of a double 🎷 basoon-like piece and a large air bladder that is filled by a bellow. This air-filled bellow is worked by the tail of the Nuita'a (Musician). The air in the bag is channeled into the instrument by the action of the tail; a number of valves and levers that the user manipulates with their paws creates bass notes. A mouth piece blown into by the operator controls upper chords and tenor notes.

Tasbanui (Y-Shaped Flute)

This instrument is shaped like a Y, and operates like a 🎵 Flute.
