

Sumanâ-a Rotyka (Fusion Cannon)

The Sumanâ-a Rotyka (Fusion Cannon) is an anti-starship/anti-fighter weapon system that the Poku Saeruo Degojjo has used since the Norka \(The Exodus\). It is found on all ships and stations that the clan use.

The cannon contains a fusion reactor at its core. It has its own fuel supply that provides enough fuel for the cannon to fire thirty times. When fired it channels a portion of the core contents through a magnetic focusing array. This keeps the energy from diffusing immediately. After firing additional fuel is added to the reactor to bring it back to optimum firing level.
