

Kitka (Staff)

The Kitka is a weapon used by members of the Poku Saeruo Degonjo who commonly use the Hapu-daho'te \(Hand Fighting\) style. The Kitka can be used to block, strike or disarm.

The kitka is between 1.5 and 2 meters in length, made of wood or metal. There is a slight bend at one end of the kitka for gripping. The Kitka serves both for attacking and defense. The weapon is usually wielded with two hands. Advanced practitioners can use the Kitka single handed effectively which allows them to use two weapons. Practice staffs are unadorned, personal ones are decorated by the owner.

Damage Capacity

See Damage Rating \(Version 3\) for an explanation of the damage system.
