

Nepleslian Military Survival Kit

The Nepleslian Military Survival Kit (NMSK) is a metal trunk filled with a pile of various useful (or at least interesting) supplies to help one or two Nepleslian soldiers survive being stranded on a planet. The Star Military of the Democratic Imperium of Nepleslia first brought this into availability in YE 31 after the start of the Second Mishhuvurthyar War. The survival kit is meant to be carried around by infantry in powered armor, attached to the underside of the armorsuit's rear systems pack, although it is possible for an unarmored soldier (especially an ID-SOL) to heft the container around.
