

YE 30 Standard Nepleslian Star Navy Uniform

This is the standard uniform of the Nepleslian Star Navy as of YE 30.

STAR.ARMY

With the addition of the Navy to the Star Military came the need to tell the difference a specialist of the field and a specialist of the ship. The result of was a lighter, more comfortable and more blue uniform which carried small similarities with the Marine's uniform. None the less it was design that could easily be told between Marine and Navy.

Headgear

Garrison Hat

Navalmen/women wear a blue garrison hat that, like the beret, tells which fleet they belong to. See Nepleslian Military Headgear for alternate headgear.

Upper Body

Undershirt and Buttoned Overshirt

As mentioned in the further above passage, the Navy uniform is made for comfort, to keep the Navalman/woman focused on their work. The buttoned overshirt is required for in-ship work, and more temperature-regulated environments. Though, the blue overshirt can be removed for more rigorous and higher-temperature work.

Rank Patches

The pair of black bars on the shoulders indicates what rank a certain navalman/woman is, for a list of ranks, see Nepleslian Military Ranks.
