

Imperial Voting Procedure Act

“Proposal #2: Imperial Voting Procedure Act” was created by Ketsurui Yui in YE 23. Passed unanimously.

Purpose

To establish a method in which the votes are cast regarding Proposals.

Proposal

1. Voting for each issue will be open for 72 hours.
2. An Imperial advisor can cast one vote, of YES, NO, or ABSTAIN, and may make comments or suggestions of improvements to the bill, which can be utilized if they do not agree with the bill.
3. A failed bill can be immediately re-run for voting if modified to reflect suggestions. Bills rejected, still in the same form must wait a week before resubmission.
4. The votes of Imperial advisors and Imperial Senators count for three points each, and the votes of GSA admirals as five votes. The votes of all other citizens count as one vote.
5. At least two votes must be made on a side for that side to be successful
