The Valhalla Station is a newly built station in orbit of an icy world in the Ether System. It was created by the Gartagen Union to be a home away from home for diplomats, hustlers, entrepreneurs and wanderers, where aliens and Gartegans alike can live in harmony and solve out their problems peacefully. It was created originally to prevent future wars between the factions of the Kikyo Sector, with it having an ambassador from most galactic bodies, who convene in meetings regularly.

It will be character-driven, with it mostly being small individual plots between characters, with episodic role-plays in a SP format. JPs can happen upon talking to the GM of the plot. Themes of it will be slice of life, drama and diplomacy. We have seen the military side, the civilian side, now this will be all about diplomacy and the drama it causes in the Union.
