

Chouteisha Squadron

The UOCPF-S1-01 Chouteisha Squadron or 'S1' is a division of the Peacekeeper Command Fleet, devoted to the defense of the United Outer Colonies. Under the assigned command of Vice Admiral Sean Richter and Commodore Yamamoto Maya, selected cadets training to become officers are put to the test in a combined in-field and instructional environment.

The 'S1' is officially assigned to patrolling the southern border sectors of the United Outer Colonies which is plagued by pirate and other activity that has become disruptive to cargo lines that pass through the region. The squadron is also available for Peacekeeper operations in other regions that are considered to be opportune for the cadets to prove themselves in their duty.

The eventual goal of the the training program is to have a permanent command staff in place for the squadron; the reward for graduation being the permanent command of ships within the squadron.
