Plot Overview

A very unfortunate squad amongst the NSMC 309th Armored Infantry "Ruthless Riders" trying to survive encounters that would otherwise (and sometimes do) kill them. They will never be heroes, never get their due rewards beyond simply surviving, and will give more than should be asked for because of it.

The unfortunate heroes the DIoN needs, even if they don't want to be. Join their suffering in the cycle of death and rebirth against everything from Star Gods and Mishu to angry Kuzynetski and a civil war!
