History

Several people from around the galaxy answered a call for mercenary work. Few accepted, but for those who did, they were given the chance to become the founding members of Ragnarok. This new Private Military Corporation soon started their first mission on New Belfast in the System R-1 "Freebeer".

The second mission the PMC took was much more complicated. The infamous Uso Tasuki hired the PMC to “liberate” and uplift a primitive planet far from civilized space.
