Special Project Ships

The following are special project ships:

- YSS Concordia, a Sharie-class Battleship prototype.
- YSS Mazu, a Takumi-Class Expeditionary Command Cruiser.
- 1 x Chiharu-class Flagship.

About The First Expeditionary Fleet's Organization

The fleet is divided into the following:

- The Tokyo Expeditionary Battle Group - The Main Fleet.
- Expeditionary Strike Groups - Assigned Strike Groups for Rapid Deployment.
- First Expeditionary Task Fleet - An Active Pool of Vessels from which Strike Groups and Task Forces can be formed.
- Task Forces - Groups of Ships formed for a specific mission purpose.
- Logistics Group - Ships assigned to the logistics of the fleet.

IRNs Post Re-Establishment

The Imperial Registry Number \(IRN\) in this fleet's registries has received a slight modification. It was designed to differentiate ships that were constructed after the fleet's re-establishment in YE 42 from ships that survived in the original fleet.

The Formula

- [Type]-[Fleet]-[Year Built][Number]
- example - YSS Tokyo: NF-X1-4201

Unnamed Escorts and Task Fleet Ships

This is a Game Master tool, it is from these groups of unnamed ships that ships for plot ships, task forces, and other groups can be formed. If a ship is used, it will be listed as named afterward.

The First Expeditionary Fleet Organization

Below is how the fleet is organized.

Tokyo Expeditionary Battlegroup

The Main Fleet of the First Expeditionary Fleet which is based around the YSS Tokyo. It is considered the primary battlegroup of the fleet. Other Expeditionary Groups and Task Forces tend to be assigned to accompany this group for mission-specific tasks.

The homeport for the Tokyo Expeditionary Battlegroup is Gemini Star Fortress, which serves as Headquarters for the entire fleet.
