

YSS Ryūjō Emblem, Motto, and History

This page contains information related to the YSS Ryūjō \(Plot\) history, emblem, and motto along with the name and status.

Ship's Emblem

Currently the ship has no actual emblem of its own due to being a newly commissioned vessel with no history

Ship's Name

The name of the ship references its ability to suddenly pounce upon targets of opportunity, its name translates to: Prancing Dragon.

Ship's Motto

Into the Shadows we go, and strike without warning - the ship was tasked with a mission of stealth, thus its motto's reflects not just its mission but also the fact that it strikes without giving the enemy a chance to react.

Ship's Status

The ship is in excellent fighting condition, although its AMTC, combat simulator, and one of its five shuttle bays have been rendered inoperable by saboteurs.

Ship Songs

The song played while the ship is in combat.

Ship's History

YE 38:

- Encountered an unknown group of enemies.

- Command of the ship changed from Takeyu Nayacesen to Sibyl Gorganis
- Ambushed within Yamatai core space by another group unknown enemies, likely unrelated, during which encounter its resupply shuttle was stolen, most of its fighters were disabled, and infiltrators used the disabled fighters to board the ship, self-destructing when caught.

Artwork
