

Divine Arrows (Wing)

The Divine Arrows were a Yui-class Destroyer wing from the Lost Fleet of the Second Draconian War. The wing was largely obliterated during suicide attacks at the Battle of Yamatai in YE 33. The wing was responsible for destroying at least 160 vessels, a kill ratio of 2 to 1. They also downed the XSS Tiamat.

The unit was commanded by a Shôshô Kakitomo Musume, a jet-haired Nekovalkyrja who at the time was onboard the YSS Mokuren. She is its only living member, and she entered service with the Eighth Fleet after the battle was over.

Legacy weapons for the crew of the YSS Miharu

Kakitomo, to honor the crew of the YSS Miharu, had fashioned from the scrap of the wing's vessels several ceremonial Zesuaium weapons.

One was given to each crew member, including Ketsurui Kotori, the ship's commander. Each also was given a name, chosen by Kakitomo based on reports and other data she discovered about each crewmember.
