The Star Army® Wiki

This wiki is the Star Army® community's encyclopedia, index, and concordance for our ever-growing shared fictional universe and it is our guidebook for participating in and contributing to the Star Army Roleplay (SARP). With the creative contributions of our members, it has now grown to over 10,763 pages and 8,291 media files. Imagine how many printed RPG sourcebooks that would fill!

Please add information about any events that occur and characters that appear in your Star Army RP, so that we can keep the universe internally consistent. Contributions are encouraged and your creations can help inspire others. Also feel free to fix any typos you find and update outdated pages.
