Abwehran Weather Uniform Additions

Rather than a separate uniform, the Weather Uniform is actually a list of additional or replacement clothing that can be worn during times of precipitation or rather nasty weather.

Articles of Clothing

Poncho

A camouflaged, water-resistant piece of fabric, the poncho can be worn over the shoulders of a soldier out on the field to protect himself and his gear from heavy precipitation. It also has a hood that can be worn as well. With proper arrangement, the Poncho may also act as a temporary shelter or be worn by snipers for ambushes.

Storm Suit

A specialized water-resistant Suit worn by the Kriegsflotte of the Schirmherrschaft, the Storm Suit has a bright orange jacket with a hem that stretches down to the upper thigh regions of the owner. It has a transparent, plastic visor on its hood that fits over the eyes to block storm spray from getting into the owners eyes. The jacket has a double seat with a zipper covered by a flap that is closed with a pressure seal.

The Storm Suit also comes with a pair of bright orange, water-resistant pants that fit over the owners usual uniform pants and are tied off at the waist. The legs are normally tied over the tops of the owners boots.
